

The Meritorious New Teacher Candidate designation is the highest recognition a new teacher candidate can earn and symbolizes exceptional performance throughout preparation.

It is awarded by the Chief School Officers of Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

This certificate signifies that

Kimberley Anne Thoresen

has met every possible MNTC criterion to date and will be applying for the designation within nine months, upon completion of a State-approved teacher preparation program.

ISSUE DATE: 4/30/2008

EXPIRATION DATE: 1/30/2009

This certificate is based on qualifications to date, as verified by the teacher preparation program. The actual Meritorious New Teacher Candidate designation is awarded upon program completion. Candidates apply through their program to the department of education in a participating state. The application and additional information can be found at www.aacte.org/Programs/MARTP/mntc.htm
